Not wise to give Pakistan nukes, Muslims and Hindus hate each other, I agree

Sam Harris lies about who did 9/11 to have a claim that terrorism grants people paradise. Sam also claims that people are trying to spread Islam; this is the truth, but it poses no threat to America instead within Syria.

Saudi Arabia used to have legislation that if a teenage girl at school cannot be helped by paramedics unless it a girl in an emergency

Chapter 2, the nature of our beliefs:

Sam claims the 9/11 attackers were "perfect in faith"

Sam attempts humor with the blood of Christ as an addition to an alcoholic beverage as if we are at a nightclub

Christian theology is a recurring concept which means the Holocaust would have again and again until it is settled.

Sam does not allow for events to go unnoticed; he holds Christians accountable for their actions rightly so. Sam feels it will return, there is little if no proof for this since we cannot tell humans how to think.

Jews are considered worse than heretics for not believing Prophet Jesus as the Messiah, times sure have changed

Sam says there is no logic behind Islam meaning Muslims would fire at any time during the Cold War.

Imperialism, Muslims are against

Sam gets the people of the Book wrong making Islam seem like it is to wage war against all other faiths.

Sam claims America can fall to a dictator; there is no evidence for this half a million Iraqi children were killed from the sanctions during the Iraq War false claim by Sam that blacks were lynched during the 19th century false claim by Sam where Jainism would cause the world to be at peace

Sam groups Al Qaeda with Hezbollah

Chapter 6:

Sam says that under Sharia Law, love is not possible

Gandhi recommended killing off all Jews in the camps thinking this would end the camps

Sam admits that Buddhism is not a normal way of thinking but prefers to replace Islam

All of the major wars, only an 11th of wars had to do with religion, Sam wants us to believe a lie. The closest we've come is the Iraq War, but all will admit it was not about the Islamic faith. If it were about faith, Iraq would be a trainwreck.
